

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
AT CHARLESTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 2:07-00029

AMOS ELWOOD BARKER

SUPERVISED RELEASE REVOCATION AND JUDGMENT ORDER
MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

On May 27, 2015, the United States of America appeared by Blaire L. Malkin, Assistant United States Attorney, and the defendant, Amos Elwood Barker, appeared in person and by his counsel, David R. Bungard, Assistant Federal Public Defender, for a hearing on the petition on supervised release submitted by United States Probation Officer Joseph Black. The defendant commenced a fifty-one month term of supervised release in this action on October 29, 2014, as more fully set forth in the Supervised Release Revocation and Judgment Order entered by the court on June 9, 2014.

The court heard the admissions of the defendant and the representations and argument of counsel.

For reasons noted on the record of this proceeding, which are ORDERED incorporated herein by reference, the court found that the defendant has violated the conditions of supervised release in the following respect: that the defendant failed to abide by the special condition that he spend a period of six months at Dismas Charities inasmuch as he entered the program on October 29, 2014, and was discharged on April 6, 2015, for committing seventeen violations of the rules and regulations of the facility; all as admitted by the defendant on the record of the hearing and as set forth in the petition on supervised release.

And the court finding, as more fully set forth on the record of the hearing, that the violation warrants revocation of supervised release and, further, that it would unduly depreciate the seriousness of the violation if supervised release were not revoked, it is ORDERED that the supervised release previously imposed upon the defendant in this action be, and it hereby is, revoked.

And the court having complied with the requirements of Rule 32(a)(1)(B) and (C) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and finding, after considering the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e), that the defendant should be confined to the extent set forth below, it is accordingly ORDERED that the defendant be, and he hereby is, committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons for imprisonment for a period of TWO (2) MONTHS, to be followed by a term of four (4) years of supervised release upon the standard conditions of supervised release now in effect in this district by order entered June 22, 2007, and the further condition that the defendant not commit another federal, state or local crime and the special condition that the defendant make monthly restitution payments at the rate of $200 per month beginning two months after the term of supervised release herein imposed commences.

The defendant was remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

The Clerk is directed to forward copies of this written opinion and order to the defendant, all counsel of record, the United States Probation Department, and the United States Marshal.

DATED: June 3, 2015

John T. Copenhaver, Jr.
United States District Judge
